political affairs had a conference with beliegate Flyon in regard to Scoffeld being taken caroof in a fixed office appoint ment, but were informed that no definite evalement could be made, owing to the uncertainty resulting from the proposed charge of land office districts. From statements made at that time by Mr. Flynn, it was taken to mean that if there two offices were consolidated, Scotleid would be given a place. Wiggins of the Woodward land office is considered a very aroung true and from a long disview of the matter, politicians believe that he will be able to land whether a change is made or not.

One thing very apparent at this time is, that if land office districts are changed. some mighty swift political juzzillog will but it is understood that his case, as now be continued, well as the others, have been held up until it is definitely determined as to the changes to the land office districts.
